7:00 p.m.

Killingly Town Hall, Room 102
172 Main Street, Killingly CT 06239

MINUTES

- I. Call to Order and Roll Call — Meeting called to order at 7:08 by Jess Veins
  - A. Welcome and IntroductionsAttendance: Jess Veins, Carrie Carter, Brittany Evans, Wayland Leonard, Heather Goodier, Eric Rumsey (staff)
- II. Approval of Minutes
  - A. December 05, 2018 – Regular MeetingMotioned by Carrie, seconded by Jess, approved by all
- III. Citizens Comment — (Individual presentations not to exceed 3 minutes; limited to an aggregate of 21 minutes unless otherwise indicated by a majority vote of the Committee)

None
- IV. Ongoing Business – review/discussion/action
  - A. 2019 Garden Year — Wayland updated the date on the application and asked if there was anything else we'd like to update; will send for approval. The group discussed making a Google doc to collaborate on the welcome packet. Carrie will write pest info.
  - B. Outreach
    - i. KCG Website / Facebook / Instagram — Carrie suggested setting a monthly post goal.
    - ii. Flyers / Advertising / Events — KCG will advertise plots through the town as per usual.
  - C. Work/Education Days — Second Saturday of every month. Carrie suggested fundraising ideas for the future: farm-to-table event or auctioning a home-cooked meal with produce from the garden and/or canning classes. She also recommended the group investigate the “living soil method” which might save money.

V. New Business – review/discussion/action

A. 2019 Garden Coordinator Job Description — the group would like to advertise again. The main objective will be to maintain engagement through attending meetings and events, communicating what’s on the calendar, and acting as a liaison between officers and gardeners. KCG needs to get approval from the Ag Commission and start advertising.

Wayland contacted the superintendent about composting scraps from the school and received no response, but Eric said it’s not likely to get approved due to budget and health code reasons.

VI. Next Meeting – Wednesday, January March 06, 2019

VII. Adjournment — motion to adjourn at 8:12 pm by Carrie, seconded by Jess, approved by all.
