4. Adoption of Minutes

Motion was made by J. Ricci and seconded by F. Gillette to accept the minutes from March 5, 2015. All present accepted the minutes with exception of William Ritter who abstained.

5. New Business

S. Hendricks gave an overview presentation of the Town of Killingly webpage explaining the survey that was launched and where to find it. T. Wakefield, Trooper Esposito and S. Hendricks explained the power point presentation on Crime Statistics. F. Gillette stated that the general consensus is that things happen in the Borough. R. Duquette asked how many arrests were made as a result of being narcotics related. Trooper Esposito will look to see if numbers can be broken down further. Trooper Esposito stated that drugs are really a problem and as a result there is a lot of stealing.

6. Old Business

As a group the following questions were compiled for the May 2015 meeting with the Montville Police Chief:

Law Enforcement History; How did you start? How do you evolve our current system?

What does supervision and chain of command look like?

How are constables used? What is the cost involved and future evolution?

What is the budget history throughout evolution?

J. Ricci how do other Towns' use their constables?

S. Hendricks will forward the questions to Montville and Plainfield.

7. Other discussion items
