  - A. 2018 Garden Year
    - i. 2018 Gardeners/Plots
      1. Bees, Woodchucks and Beetles — oh my. Last meeting it was decided that Sharon would use woodchuck spray, but she decided not to because it was so late in the season. We can spray next season as well as try to use tackcloth to deter them. Jonathan made a sheet to distribute to gardeners next season about what to do if aggressive pests are spotted. Sharon suggested we make an instruction sheet about other pests, and Jess suggested Planting Day as the best day to provide education.

2. End of Season – Cleanup and inventory day scheduled for October 27, 9am-noon. Sharon will email gardeners. Jonathan said Sharon's hours as Garden Coordinator have been met and her final payment submitted.

B. Linda's Garden – Wayland wants to plant more blueberry bushes and build a walk-in cage around them. Jonathan provided contact info for someone who was interested in perennials for a cutting garden. KCG does not allow perennials in assigned garden beds but will reach out to discuss other options.

C. Outreach

i. KCG Website / Facebook / Instagram – Wayland wants to make a QR code tour of the garden and suggested it as a potential winter project.

ii. Flyers / Advertising / Events

1. 2018 Killingly's Great Tomato Festival - Wayland and Heather attended. They spoke to a man who does stone work and expressed interest in volunteering for a project. They also met a woman who invited us to dig up perennials from her yard at home.

V. New Business - review/discussion/action

A. Work/Education Days – Second Saturday of every month

i. Saturday, September 15, 2018 Recap – Heather and Jess worked in the garden. No gardeners attended.

ii. Next work day – Saturday, October 27, 2018 (changed from the 13th).

VI. Next Meeting - Wednesday, November 07, 2018

VII. Adjournment – motion to adjourn at 7:41 by Jess, seconded by Brittany, approved by all.
