

On April 14, 2020 the Killingly Town Council adopted a resolution granting a three month extension for eligible taxpayers. For these taxpayers the April 1, 2020 installment becomes delinquent after July 1, 2020 instead of May 1, 2020 as stated on your tax bill. The July 1, 2020 installment becomes delinquent after October 1, 2020 instead of August 3, 2020.

“Eligible” taxpayers, businesses, nonprofits, and residents are those that “attest to or document significant economic impact by COVID-19, and / or those that document they are providing relief to those significantly affected by COVID- 19.” The affidavit provided by the State of Connecticut Office of Policy Management reads as follows;

Resident: My household has suffered a reduction in income of at least 20% due to COVID-19. Since April 1, 2020, I either (1) have been furloughed without pay; (2) had my hours significantly reduced; or (3) unemployed. This has resulted in at least a 20% reduction in my household income. Proof of Residency is attached (i.e. a copy of driver’s license, utility bill, or other proof of residency)

Business / Non-Profit: Revenue is expected to decrease at least 30% in the April to June 2020 period versus the April to June 2019 period at this property. Proof of Ownership is attached (i.e. copy of my business license, utility bill, Secretary of State listing, or other proof of ownership)

Do not leave your home to copy any proof of residency documents. If you are unable to provide them, we will verify that you have a vehicle registered to Killingly and that your mailing address is Killingly.

Please keep in mind if your application is approved and your April installment is paid after July 1, 2020 it will be subject to interest back to the due date of April 1st at the rate of 1 ½% per month or any fraction of a month. A minimum of $2.00 interest will be charged for each delinquent installment.

If we do not have an approved application on file by May 1,2020 your account will show as delinquent with accumulated interest until such time as an approved application is processed. The deadline to submit an application is July 1, 2020.
